

Amoroso joins Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP

Michael Amoroso, Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP

Michael Amoroso joined Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP as an associate in the Real Estate, Land Use and Zoning Practice Groups.

Prior to joining the firm, for six years Amoroso was the bureau chief of the Suffolk County Dept. of Law's Real Estate and Condemnation Bureau.

Under Amoroso's management and supervision the bureau, which consists of five attorneys, provides legal advice to various county departments and prepares formal and informal legal opinions related to real estate matters for county agencies including the County Treasurer, County Clerk, Parks Dept. and the Suffolk County Sewer Agency. The Bureau provides legal support to the Dept. of Environment and Energy, Dept. of Planning, the Division of Real Property Acquisition and Management, and the County Executive's Office on all environmental acquisitions. In addition, the bureau assists the Department of Economic Development and Workforce Housing, the Department of Public Works, and the Division of Real Property Acquisition and Management.

Amoroso brings experience to Certilman Balin. Before taking the helm as Suffolk County's bureau chief, he practiced law for 20 years in the areas of commercial and residential real estate and general litigation matters including municipal law, personal injury, matrimonial and trusts and estates.

He earned his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law, his bachelor of arts, cum laude, in Psychology from the State University of New York at Albany, and is admitted to practice in the state of New York and before the Appellate Division, Second Department.

Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP has grown into Long Island's second largest full-service law firm with offices in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. Its 14 practice areas include: real estate, real property tax certiorari and condemnation, cooperative and condominium, land use, environmental law, corporate/securities, litigation, commercial lending, labor relations/employment law, bankruptcy and debtor/creditor rights, trusts and estates, elder law, telecommunications law, and criminal law.
