

Jaspreet S. Mayall

Co-Managing Partner

Jaspreet S. Mayall is a Co-Managing Partner of the Firm and a member of its Executive Committee. He serves as Chair of the Telecommunications Practice Group, Co-Chair of the Bankruptcy and Debtor/Creditor Rights Practice Group and a member of the Litigation department where he leads complex, high-level matters.

He counsels cellular phone companies, master wholesalers, retailers and original equipment manufacturers. His national client base relies upon his counsel on negotiating their agreements with the wireless carriers, as well as mergers and acquisitions, joint venture agreements, OEM agreements, retail leases, and other agreements in the telecommunications field. He has extensive experience litigating a wide variety of telecommunications cases in state and federal courts.

He also litigates commercial matters across a broad spectrum of industries, including contractual disputes, business reorganizations, and non-judicial workouts. Early in his legal career, Mr. Mayall honed his litigation skills in our Debtor/Creditor Rights and Bankruptcy Practice Group, regularly representing trustees, debtors, and both secured and unsecured creditors in complex insolvency disputes. In bankruptcy proceedings, he has been involved in numerous contested matters and significant reported decisions, counseling clients at every stage of Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 cases.

Mr. Mayall serves as a member of the Committee on Character and Fitness for the Second, Tenth and Eleventh Judicial Districts. The Appellate Division, Second Department of the Supreme Court of the State of New York first appointed him in 2007. He is also a Special Master for the Appellate Division, Second Judicial Department, as well as a member on New York state's Commercial Division Advisory Council.

Named consecutively to the New York Metro Super Lawyers list from 2013 through 2024, Mr. Mayall first earned the distinction in 2010. Long Island Business News named him as one of Long Island's 40 Under 40 Rising Stars in 2003, as well as naming him an Influencer in Law in 2026. He was also honored with the India Republic Day Award from the Town of Hempstead. In the recent 2027 edition, Mr. Mayall was recognized by Best Lawyers of America.

He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration from Hofstra University and graduated from Hofstra University School of Law. There he was inducted into Phi Alpha Delta, the largest co-ed professional law fraternity in the United States.

An active member of the Nassau County Bar Association, he is admitted to practice in New York; New Jersey; the Eastern, Southern, Western and Northern Districts of New York and the District of New Jersey; and the District of Columbia. He has achieved the highest professional rating by Martindale Hubbell.

Mr. Mayall was appointed to the board of the American Heart Association and is charged with helping the organization build awareness in the South Asian community. He was also previously unanimously elected president of the board of the Nargis Dutt Memorial Foundation of New York. He is fluent in Hindi and Punjabi.
