

Samantha Seter

Associate

Samantha Seter is an Associate in our Corporate/Securities and Nonprofit Practice Groups.

In her corporate and securities practice, she concentrates on mergers and acquisitions involving privately held companies, commercial contracts, corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions, with an emphasis on securities law, including matters involving public and private offerings, periodic reporting, corporate governance and other general corporate matters.

In her non-profit law concentration, she counsels and advocates for not-for-profits and religious organizations in a wide variety of areas, including governance, regulatory matters involving the Internal Revenue Service (including 501(c)(3) qualification) and commercial matters.

From 2022 to 2024, Ms. Seter was named one of the New York Metro Super Lawyers Rising Star, and in 2023 she was named to its Women's Edition.

She earned a Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Sacred Heart University. As an undergraduate, she was a member of the NCAA Division I Women's Track and Field Team.

Prior to joining Certilman Balin, Ms. Seter worked as a paralegal and a legal assistant at a Long Island law firm. She honed her skills in legal research, assisted attorneys in document review projects, drafted correspondence and provided administrative support. Ms. Seter studied Paralegal Studies at Nassau Community College.

Ms. Seter is a member of the Constantinople Armenian Relief Society ("C. A. R. S.") in Bayside, New York. She serves as a mentor to 4th and 5th grade students at Walnut Street Elementary School in Uniondale, as part of the Lawyers Involved in Kids' Education ("LIKE") Program. The LIKE program is affiliated with Mentor New York where she also serves on the Young Professionals Advisory Board.

She is admitted to practice in the states of New York and New Jersey.
