Associate

Kaitlyn Keane is an Associate in our Litigation Practice Group. She brings a strong academic background and practical experience from her work in litigation, research, and legal support roles.

Before joining our firm, Ms. Keane worked as a Summer Associate at Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman LLP, where she conducted in-depth research, drafted memoranda, and assisted in litigation related to contract disputes, property disputes, and procedural matters. Additionally, her work as a Research Assistant at the Syracuse University Institute for Security Policy & Law allowed her to contribute to national security-related research on emerging issues like the use of AI by governments and legal developments in Ukraine. Housed in the College of Law and partnered with The Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, the institute allowed her to analyze how legal frameworks impact policy development and vice versa.

Ms. Keane is a graduate of Syracuse University College of Law, where she has excelled academically, earning a Certificate of Advanced Study in National Security & Counterterrorism Law and achieving Dean's List honors multiple times. She was also an Associate Note Editor for the Syracuse Law Review and a Student Attorney at the Betty and Michael D. Wohl Veterans Legal Clinic.

Ms. Keane earned her B.A. in Political Science, with minors in Spanish and Economics, from the University of Rhode Island, graduating magna cum laude.
