S trategic Legal Solutions for a Rapidly Evolving Telecom Industry

At Certilman Balin, our Telecommunications Practice Group has been offering trusted legal counsel in regulatory compliance, corporate transactions, real estate, land use, litigation, and cross-border deals for almost three decades. We understand the complexities of the telecom industry and provide clear, practical guidance to help clients succeed.

Our clients range from local store operators to global master dealers. We serve as general counsel to major U.S. master dealers and leading accessory firms across North America. We also represent clients in cross-border wireless alliances and joint ventures in both established and emerging markets.

We draft and negotiate the full range of agreements telecom companies need for daily operations, including distribution, licensing, vendor, and infrastructure contracts. With deep knowledge of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 and evolving industry trends, we offer strategic, business-focused legal solutions.

Our proactive approach helps clients manage risk and drive growth. Whether it's regulatory challenges, market expansion, or complex transactions, we deliver legal strategies aligned with your business goals.

At Certilman Balin, we're more than legal advisors — we're partners in your success.
